BULLETIN ANSWER KEY · FOR THE PREACHING TEAM

Find Your Purpose

A Month of Purpose · Part 1 of 4

BIG IDEA

Tearing down what's broken is sometimes necessary. It is never the goal. Building something better is the goal.

THE TEXT

Isaiah 2:4 · Psalm 139:13

WHAT IT MEANS

1 Isaiah preached to a nation under real threat. Beating swords into plowshares turns instruments of war into instruments of growth.

2 We're all born with a sword in our spirit. As adults it shows up as outrage, criticism and comparison.

3 A sword alone can't build a house, grow a family or heal a neighborhood.

4 "Knit together" is a weaving image. You were crafted, by name, not stamped off an assembly line.

THE CHALLENGE

5 This week, notice when you reach for the sword, and pick up a shovel instead.

6 Your Life Signature: your Passion, the fire in your bones; your Gift, the strength in your hands; your Burden, the ache in your heart.

7 You don't chase your Life Signature. You uncover it.

A QUESTION TO CARRY

"What will you replace the problem with?"
