Lessons from the Burning Bush

A Month of Purpose · Part 2 of 4

BIG IDEA

God has already placed three things in you: a fire that makes you come alive, a strength that feels ordinary to you but extraordinary to others, and an ache you can't walk past.

THE TEXT

Exodus 2:11–14 · Exodus 3:1–4:17 · Exodus 1:11–14; 6:9 · Genesis 46:34 · Deuteronomy 28:12 · Romans 12:6 · 1 Peter 4:10

WHAT IT MEANS

1. Before there's a bush, there's a fracture. Burden is rarely born in comfort.
2. Passion: the bush burns but is not consumed. True passion lights you up without burning you out.
3. Gift: God asks, "What is that in your hand?" Your gift feels ordinary to you and remarkable to everyone watching.
4. Burden: "I have heard them crying out." A burden is where God's heart meets yours and won't let you look away.

THE CHALLENGE

One honest line for each, without combining them yet.

Passion: what makes me come alive

Gift: what feels natural to me but wows others

Burden: what breaks my heart that I can't walk past

REMEMBER

Naming them isn't inventing something new. It's finally paying attention to what's been there all along.
